“ I just learned a couple of days ago of Preston's illness and passing. Preston and I went to South Garland High School and were in choir together all four years. Preston was the nicest, sweetest and most genuine person I knew at our high school of over 2,000 people. Although I was a believer too, my lack of spiritual maturity at the time kept me from realizing that the great personality that Preston had was a direct reflection of Jesus and the relationship he had with Him. I am so sorry to hear about this, but am encouraged to know that Preston's life was spent doing what he knew and loved best - loving Jesus and using his musical talents to make Him known to the world.

To the entire Harris family - Mr & Mrs Harris, Julie and the girls (we have not met) - my prayers are that you would find peace that surpasses understanding and that you'd be overwhelmed with hope and perspective that can only come from a relationship with Him.

I worked for him for a year and a half. He was a committed Christian and was a dedicated family man. He is missed here but I know that he is welcomed by the denizens of Heaven.

“ I had the privilege of serving on the praise team with Preston while he was the worship leader at Fellowship Baptist in Saginaw, Texas. I will always remember that he had one of the most beautiful voices I had ever heard. Not only did Preston talk the talk, but he walked the walk. One of the godliest people I have ever known and his wife Julie only added to that package. He will be missed but I know he is singing in the highest of high choir right now and I can't wait to hear him again one day

“ I remember the first time I saw Preston. He was very busy trying to get everything ready for his first Worship hour here with us. He was so kind and gentle with the choir. We all loved him and his family. He had a voice that was amazing. He taught us how to worship our Lord and Savior. I am so grateful he was here. We will never forget his love for everyone. Preston, we loved you when you came and we love you as you go to the arms of our Savior. See you soon.
