

Rev. Charlie Rush

December 7, 1931 - October 30, 2010

Charles Clifford Rush of Elmore City, Oklahoma was adopted by Charles Samuel and Leona Mettie “Day” Rush on December 7, 1931 in Libral, Kansas and passed from this life October 30, 2010 in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma at the age 78years.

Charles spent his childhood days in Grand Junction, Colorado where he grew up and attended school. Brother Rush started in the ministry at the age of 19 and evangelized all over the world. He started his ministry under Cathrin Culman along side with Benny Hinn. On February 23, 1985 he married Lavauna Cordelia South in Montague, Texas. Brother Rush built a church in Enos, OK called the House of Prayer, which originally started out in a tent. In 1987, he began pasturing in Elmore City, Oklahoma at the Southside Holiness Church where he later built a church.

Brother Rush’s life was preaching, but the Lord came first. He always had a joke for you and loved to make people laugh. His wife & family were the highlights of his life. Brother Rush taught everyone that the most valued thing they would ever have in this life or the life after death was their name written in the Lamb’s book of Life.
