“ Tami, We have many men who make up our lives, Father, brother, uncle, grandfather, and son; but the one that we call husband is the one who we attach our heart and live as one, with the solemn oath that until death do we part. God gives us many gifts in life, parents, children, even friends, but the special gift is in a blessed union to the one true love of our lives. That is the one that we call husband. Lucky is the woman who finds that special man, the one true love from which all love springs. I know that you found that one man and called him Rick. I know that your time together was not the many years you had planned to be together, but you have all the memories you made together in that short time. I can not tell you I know how you feel because I have not lost the love of my life, but I can pray for you and God is always near to wipe away your tears. I love you, Patsy & Rick Brinlee
