“ I will always remember the fun and crazy antics Rick and Roger pulled. I wanted to be around them all the time. He stopped in to see Dad and Roger often and his presence and loyalty will be very missed. Love to you all.

“ My earliest memories include Rick playing with Roger and sometimes tormenting me, but always present. I loved their attention and always wanted to be with them. His love and devotion and visits to Rog and his Uncle Jack continued all through the years. He will be so missed.
