“ My deepest and most sincere condolences to Rob's wife Dee, daughter Julie and entire family. I only knew Rob on Facebook through mutual friends. Rob and I thought a lot alike about many things and had the same sense of humor. He referred to me as his "sister from another mister" and I referred to him as my "brother from another mother". We joked and laughed a lot, but the one thing that was always consistent and true was his love for his wife and daughter. I cannot imagine what you must be going through, but just know that this one friend, from out here in cyberland, is sending so many prayers your way for peace and comfort at this very difficult time. With my deepest sympathies, Kari Olson

“ Robbie is the youngest Cook grandchild. I didn't see much of him as I was in high school when he was born and we lived in separate towns. He will forever live in our hearts. May God hold his wife and daughter in the palm of his hands.
