“ Oh daddy it has been almost 4 years and watching this video I still cry like a baby. So much has changed since you been gone I had my first daughter so now your a grandpa actually three times. The special thing is that I had your first granddaughter on the 2 year anniversary of your death. You passed September 29, of 2013 and I had her on September 29, of 2015. It is crazy how miracles like that happen. I know that if you were still her she would be more spoiled then she already is and not a day goes by that I don't wish you were here to hold her and laugh at all the silly things she says. I know that you would have been the best grandpa around, but I feel as if you sent her to me on that day for a reason because once you got to heaven You already knew her and was holding her until I could. I love and miss you so much daddy what I wouldn't do to hear your voice, or get a hug from you one more time. I can wait though because the long I wait the more Longer that you will get to hold me when I get there. Save a place for me daddy right beside you and grandma and grandma patsy I miss yall all like crazy God works in mysterious ways and why you had to go so young daddy I will never know but apparently God needed you to do some work on his vehicle up there. I love you daddy forever and always your little girl Kasey.
