ROBERT GREGORY POORTER

Robert Gregory Poorter was born June 9, 1960 to Dr. Karl K. Poorter and Annie Laurie Dinkle in Sacramento, CA. He passed from this life on June 7, 2007 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma at the age of 46 years.

Greg attended Midwest City High School and Sanford Navel Academy in Florida. He was an accomplished body builder who enjoyed helping others obtain their goals by sharing his vast knowledge with them. Making people feel good about themselves was definitely a quality he possessed. Besides being a personal fitness trainer, Greg was also employed in sales and telecommunications. Because of his love of people he always excelled in this arena. His bubbly personality was a great asset to him as well as to anyone who came into contact with him. Greg never met a stranger...to know him was to love him.

Greg was a great storyteller and thrived on being the center of attention. He had a way of luring listeners to hang on his every word. He could always draw a crowd. He was a man of great pride Greg also valued his family and long time friends. Many of his friendships stem back 20 plus years. Children were one of his greatest joys. He loved to get the neighborhood kids together and teach them to box. Greg enjoyed cooking especially for others. He could always come up with a new way to eat the same old thing!

His greatest love of all was his son, Cody. If you ask him what his greatest accomplishment in life was...he would tell you....IT WAS MY SON.

Greg was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents Mama and Papa Dinkle. His paternal grandparents Granny and Big Daddy Poorter and his big brother Karl Kelly Poorter.

Greg is survived by his son, Cody Krauter Poorter of Hollywood, CA formerly of Pauls Valley. His mother, Laurie Poorter of Dallas, TX. His father, Dr. Karl K. Poorter and his wife Betty of Georgetown, TX. Two sisters Penny Neville and her husband Michael of San Antonio, TX and Mendy Hassen of Katy, TX. One sister-in-law, Moch Littlefield of San Antonio, TX. Four nieces, Tammi Collins of San Antonio, TX, Shea Kummer and her husband Kyle of Grand Prairie, TX, Ashley Hassen of Katy, TX, and Alyssa Littlefield of San Antonio, TX. One nephew, Karl Kelly Poorter, Jr. and his wife Dabney of Denton, TX.

Greg will be greatly missed but never forgotten. Private family services were held on Saturday, June 16, 2006 at 11:00 a.m. in the Wooster Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Charles Ledbetter officiating. Interment was in the Mt. Olivet Cemetery under the direction of Wooster Funeral Home. Notes of condolence may be sent to www.woosterfuneralhomes.com.

“ To Greg's son, Cody,,,, You were his hero. When he spoke of you, his chest swelled. He was your biggest fan and you were his biggest accomplishment in life. His pride glowed when he spoke your name. He loved you very much and I just wanted to share this with you.

“ I had the honor of meeting Greg last Fall @ the Metro Transmit Center down on Hudson. He tugged @ my heartstrings and I opened up my home to him prior to and over New Year's Eve holiday. Alot of my family met him and enjoyed conversing with him as he was quite a conversationalist and could be very personable. I will never forget Greg... he taught me several valuable lessons about life and my heart strings were tugged again when I read his obit in the Daily Oklahoman. He's now home and being well taken care of. They say God has a very special place in his heart for those that hurt and he counts our tears. May God be with Greg's family during this difficult time and may they remember all the fond memories that are etched in their heart. ~ Barbara Canter###imported-begin##Barbara Canter, R.N. ###imported-end##

“ Cody,
We haven't seen eachother in a while but I read about your dad in the paper and wanted to tell you how sorry I am for your loss. I remember what an awesome guy your dad was and it's terrible that he's gone. If you ever want to get in touch with me my email is: HeinousOrange1@aol.com.
Love and prayers,

“ Cody,

Just to add that I'm glad now that I had the opportunity to talk with your Dad on the telephone that one time. It encouraged my heart to learn of the bond that you and he shared. Please allow that bond to give you strength now.

If you need to talk, please feel free to e-mail me at Cathy14@cox.net.

Again, take care.##imported-begin##R. Cathy Ann Moore##imported-end##

“ Dear Cody K. Poorter,

This is your former professor, and I read of your father's death today. I was very saddened to learn about this event. I remember you talking about how much concern you had for your Dad. Again, I'm sorry that you have to go through this tragedy. Please know that my prayers and thoughts go with you, no matter where you are. So, I see that you traveled west. Good for you ! Well, take care, and may the Lord's comfort sustain you. R. Cathy Ann M.##imported-begin##R. Cathy Ann Moore##imported-end##

“ I had the honor of meeting Greg ("Pooder") and working with him first in 1983. He always had a smile and always going. We both shared a bond of bodybuilding and we became workout partners over the years and then steady training partners again in 1998 at Tannique. We lost touch so many times. I had the honor of having lunch with him at Mc Donalds on Reno and Classen 2 months ago. We talked for 2 hours. As I drove off I saw him come out side and wave with a big smile. I will remember him in so many ways and am blessed I could call him a friend. His support of my judo and professional wrestling career will always be appreciated and remembered. He made dreaded workouts much easier. He was a good man to know and have on your team. Our conversations on our children and how we could make them pro ballplayers and lawyers were laughable. I will miss him but knowing him was an honor and will always remain an honor.

Cody: your dad always was your biggest fan and you were his life. You were also his hero.

He will always be there for you.

“ *Cody and Greg's Family,
Greg was a dear friend of ours for many years. David met Greg many, many years ago in a gym and they remained friends from that day forward. We loved having him visit our home because he always made us smile. We also loved the bond he had with Cody. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ You are in my thoughts now as I know you are at the services. It broke my heart that I was unable to be there with you at this time of sorrow.

My prayers are with you. Our home is open to you all should you ever travel to SA.

*Love you all,
