“ Roy was a good man! It was so obvious Roy loved his step children and step-grandchildren like they were his very own blood & the love, respect & feeling returned was mutual. Likewise, if he was not pleased with something one of them did, they knew it. He disciplined with love & kindness, but stern words, which were very effective. They all knew where they stood. Anytime anyone showed him kindness, he returned it ten-fold. Roy will be missed and loved by all who knew him. RIP Roy! 🙏

“ Forty one years ago Roy drove me from Ada Oklahoma to Oklahoma City in heavy rain and we didn't go slow. It was an emergency and he contacted the oil company my husband worked for and got them to the hospital. I will always be grateful.
