ROY E. HACKNEY

Roy E. Hackney was born to Barney Hackney and Emily Jones on July 22, 1933 in Fairview Community in McClain County, OK and entered eternal life on June 20, 2013 in Lindsay, OK at the age of 79 years.

On January 6, 1975 Roy married Tommie Fullerton in Criner, OK. As a working man, Roy worked as a vendor for the Blind Association for many years as well as an owner and operator of a service station. He also had a love for farming. Mr. Hackney later retired from the Blind Association Vendors. He was a long time member of the Iron Chapel Church and also served on the Dibble City Council. Roy loved any kind of wood work, working on tractors with the boys, raising sheep and goats with his son Tim and “running” the nursing home facility with his granddaughter. He was a die-hard OU fan, who also loved to water-ski and of course spend time with his children and grandchildren. He always tried to teach others that any obstacle or disability can be overcome by turning it into something positive.

“ LaWatha, I'm so sorry for your loss. Daddy's are so hard to send home to the Lord. I'll never forget the trip Roy, Margie and I made to California to see about Zella. It's a small wonder that we survived then. My love and prayers are with you. Beth
