“ Cindy and family,
I was shocked when I heard that Roy had passed away. Sorry that I did not know this earlier so I could have attended his service and expressed my sympathy in person. He was a good guy and will be missed by many! My deepest sympathy and may he rest in peace in a better place!

“ We were so shocked to hear of Roy's passing! We have very fond memories of him (and Cindy) at the Happy OK Wanders motor home rallies and especially when we went to the Rose Bowl rally about 3 years ago! He will be missed at the rallies and we will certainly be keeping Cindy and their family in our prayers!

“ Roy had a great sense of humor. When he smiled it always put a sparkle in his eye. I can't think of any newlywed that would open his home to teenage kid. But he did that every summer. ...even after his children started arriving. Well isn't that free babysitting? If you would prefer other chores he would be the first to suggest them. He used to tease me he was going to make me a “broomcorn Johnny”. He believed that you worked hard and encouraged my family's work ethic every time I saw him. His loving wife Cindy my cousin is like a big sister and we always had a good time whenever we were together over the years with plenty of hugs and laughs. What a wonderful family they have, three great sons with lovely families of their own. He was so so proud of all of them, wives and of course his grandkids! No problem busting those shirt buttons when talked about his family. While he was a world traveler Roy loved his country...especially his home Oklahoma ... I used to tell him that if I didn't see that red clay dirt before I heard him I knew it was him because of his Okey accent....that just brought another grin. Roy will be dearly missed and we all have very happy good memories of our times with him.

Give those who have gone before a big hug Roy, they are welcoming you with open arms as we grieve that we will not get another one of those big bear hugs. Angels please embrace him as we embrace his family...he will be another 'watcher angel'.

We love you, Roy.

Little cuz,
Vickie
