“Dad, it’s been almost five years without you here, and it’s been really hard. Really really hard. I miss you so much. I’m not going to say I’ve moved on or I’ve stopped thinking about you, because I haven’t. And I never will. I still remember these weird things like how your voice sounded, or the way you smelled, or those OU hats you always wore. I remember I would wrap my tiny little arms around you, and you would pick me up and hug me. I miss you so much dad. I will always remember you. I think about you every single day. You will always have a special place in my heart. Always. I wish I could’ve had more time with you. Sometimes I’ll be at Walmart with Grandma or Grandpa and everyone always says I look like you. I swear I would give anything just for you to be here, just to see me dad. Even for only a day. At first when you left me, I thought it wasn’t real. I thought maybe you could just come back, or maybe I was just in a dream and I would wake up soon and you would be here again. But it wasn’t a dream, or I haven’t woken up yet. I Love You. So much. You mean the world to me Dad. And I don’t want people to feel bad for me. I don’t want people to read this on their phones and type “prayers” when they haven’t even folded their hands and bowed their heads in 25 years. I don’t want that. I want people to remember you. I want the people that got to have more time with you than I did, to share the good times they had with you, I want them to talk about all the funny things you did or said. When you left it broke my heart, but I’m still trying to put it back together and find out who I am. I love you with all of my heart. I will always love you. I know you are with me all the time. I love you. ❤️

“ Dearest Pam, Rick, Pete and JoAnn~~I was so sorry to hear of Royce's passing last weekend. I remember being there when he was born--such a special day! Watching Pete and Royce grow up was a special part of our family's lives, as well. Royce stands out as having been one of my most special students at Lindsay Middle School. During this time, you have a special place in my prayers and my heart. I'm sorry I couldn't attend his services, but please know that I was there in spirit. I love you all!
