

Sarina Renee Decker

September 13, 1979 - April 8, 2026

Sarina Renee Decker was born on September 13, 1979, in Galveston, Texas, to Wayne Clarence Decker and Sandra Deloris Decker. She passed from this life on April 8, 2026, at the age of 46.

Sarina grew up in the Highlands and Baytown, Texas areas, where she attended local schools and developed a love for music. She proudly played the flute in her school band and carried that love of music throughout her life, especially enjoying artists like Garth Brooks and New Kids on the Block.

Known as the “mother hen” of her family, Sarina naturally took on a nurturing role, helping raise her siblings as well as many nieces and nephews. Her caring spirit and willingness to support others left a lasting impact on everyone she touched.

Sarina shared a meaningful relationship with Richard Lee Ybanez, and together they had two children, Jessie and Noah, who were the greatest highlights of her life. She was a devoted mother who took pride in teaching Jessie how to cook, even though cooking wasn't her favorite pastime.

Her career reflected her strong work ethic and determination. Sarina held her first management position at Kmart in Ohio before continuing in various retail roles. She eventually found her professional home with Murphy's, working in Pauls Valley and Norman, Oklahoma, for 13 years. Her dedication and leadership earned her the prestigious “Circle of Stars” award, recognizing her as part of a top-performing Murphy's store.

Sarina loved traveling, spending time with family and friends, and especially cherished visits to Galveston Beach. She was known for her motivation, her hardworking nature, and her ability to inspire others. She encouraged those around her not to hold grudges and always tried to lend a helping hand to anyone in need.

Sarina will be remembered for her strength, her generosity, and the love she gave so freely. Her legacy lives on through her children, her family, and all those whose lives she touched. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

Sarina is survived by her sons, Jessie Ybanez, Noah Ybanez, Ricky Decker, Levi Emke; Bonus son, Taylor Hammond; Mother, Sandra Deloris Decker; Daughter, Kim Autrey; Grandson, Jackson Autrey; Brother, Joseph Decker; Sisters, Johna Decker, Khrisda Decker, Carol Nicole Williams; Aunt Jazalyn; Cousin Krystal; Family friends, Kim Cleaver and husband Tim; Nieces and Nephews, Aydense, Ethan, Layla, Kolt, Skyler, Adesna, Isabel, Gracie; and a host of other friends and family.

Sarina was preceded in death by her father, Wayne Clarence Decker; Grandmother, Gladiola "Gloria" Wingate; and Father of Jessie and Noah, Richard Lee Ybanez.

Memorial services for Sarina are pending at this time.

“ Sarina was such a giving spirit I only got to know her as a friend a little over a year ago. She wanted to go to concerts out to eat she loved just calling and talking. This was so sudden but I got the chance to talk with her the night before her surgery and she assured me that she was concerned but God had her covered. It was such a shock at her passing so suddenly but I am glad I got to know her. To the family I send my prayers 🙏 for comfort may God bless you all...

“ She was an amazing beautiful person!! She had a lot of love and was always prideful about her children. The Lord needed an amazing guardian angel for those kids so who better than mom? She was funny and caring she was the best part of the job. My heart aches for those left here but I know in my heart she is getting home ready for when they come back together!

One of the most unique Lady I've ever met in my life her friendship was rare one of a kind always had my back. I moved it to Oklahoma one of the greatest road trips we ever had together. We spent a lot of time on the beach too, so one of my closest friends, one of my Homies and I'm gonna really miss her. I love you, Sarina Decker.
