“ Dear Gale and Lloyd, As parents who lost their beloved son the same way you did, our hearts are breaking for you. That Scott was so young and so loved do not make it easier. It's a year and a half since we lost Will, and, incredibly, the pain begins to fade. The love and gratitude you feel for having him in your lives as long as you did never does. In this life, everything that's born must have an end. In the next life. our loved ones' go back to the Light upon Light upon Light they came from which goes on forever. We would love to talk with you, share our experiences take solace from each other if you would ever like to do that. My prayers are with you now, for the next year or more when your grieving will be unbelievably intense, and on until Scott comes to greet you in Paradise.

A book that helped us was Night Falls Fast by Kay Jamison Redfield.

If you would ever like to talk, please email us your number and we would love to call you. Our number is 612-822-9409.

Other Mom's I know of from Pauls Valley who have lost a child are Jeanne Browne Pratt, Meri Sacra, Sandra Minnefee and Sherry Reece. It would be good if we could all connect sometime.##imported-begin##Jeanne Dowd Grimm and Richard Grimm##imported-end##

You never missed a chance to harass me about something stupid I had done. But you were my friend, and I will always remember that. I am praying for you and your family. I hope you know how much you will be missed.##imported-begin##Lydia Williams, OSBI##imported-end##

“ Scottie - I will miss you forever, cousin. I will never forget when you volunteered as a patrolman to escort my other grandfather's funeral procession and told me "I wouldn't have it any other way." It meant more to me than you will ever know and is an example of how much you care about family.
