

Shirley G. Phillips

March 31, 1944 - August 14, 2015

Shirley G. Phillips of Norman, Oklahoma was born to Homer Buckner Minnick and Eula Wyoma (Mobley) Minnick on March 31, 1944 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and passed from this life on August 14, 2015 in Norman, Oklahoma at the age of 71 years. Shirley grew up and attended school at Pernell . After Beauty College she owned and operated two daycare centers: the ABC Academy and Del City Academy until her health failed. Shirley had many hobbies including painting, arts and crafts and making jewelery. The highlight of her life was her grandchildren. She was the type of person to help anyone. The most important thing she taught her family and others was to know the Lord.

Ms. Phillips is survived by:

3 Sons: Jackie Phillips and wife Christina of Oklahoma City, OK ; Danny Phillips and his fiancé Sherry Haggard of Moore, OK ; Todd Phillips, of Moore, OK

Brother: Joe Minnick of Elmore City, OK

2 Sisters: Maxine Swanda of Davis, OK and Kay Courtney and husband Jim of Elmore City, OK

5 Grandchildren: Brent Phillips, Alysa Phillips, Ryan Phillips, Jordan Phillips, and Kramer Phillips

Great-Grandchildren: Addy Montesano

Graveside services are scheduled for Monday August 17, 2015 at 11:00a.m. in the Elmore City Cemetery with Mark Dodge officiating. Interment is under

PS

“ I will forever cherish the time I had with your mom, the shopping trips, lunch dates and just the laughs and giggles we shared in her room. She knew how to love me along with others unconditionally and taught me so much about life!! I am going to miss her so much!! Rest in peace Shirley, knowing there be no more pain, discomfort or dialysis again. I love you so much!! Until we meet again, Paula Czajkoski-Semmler
