

Sondra Shumate Copeland

February 11, 1934 - August 28, 2010

Sondra Shumate Copeland of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma was born to Carl A. and Juel (Harkreader) Shumate, Jr. on February 11, 1934 in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma and passed from this life on August 28, 2010 in Pauls Valley at the age of 76 years.

Sondra was raised in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma and graduated in 1952 from Pauls Valley High School. During that time she was active in the Methodist Church youth Fellowship. Sondra was a member of Rainbow Girls and the pep squad. Sondra received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Elementary Education from Phillips University in 1969. She later obtained a Master's in Elementary Education from the University of Southern Mississippi. She taught school in Pioneer-Pleasantville; Enid School; in Albion School in Chapter 1; Maysville; and was an after the bell tutor and tutored in home.

Sondra was active in church activities and was church treasurer for several years. In her spare time she enjoyed reading, oil painting and was a member of the Red Hat Society. The highlights of her life were getting her Master's Degree and seeing her children grow up and start their own families. Sondra always taught to keep your eyes and heart on God and learn to lean on Him. She had a strong commitment to God, family, career, and country.
