“ I would just like to say I am praying for your family. Te was an amazing young man and I am so glad to say that I knew him. We talked on a regular basis about life, death, etc. but if I were to tell you what we talked about most it definitely was his family. He cared about you guys more than words can express. I am so thankful for Te's friendship because he taught me many things. He was a courageous, caring, godly young man who wasn't afraid of anything. All he wanted in life was for his family and friends to be happy and of course for his Longhorns to win! When Te would text me and tell me something was wrong I would always tell him to stay strong, trust God, and I will pray for him. His response was always the same you know I am, you know I will, and God bless you. It breaks my heart to have lost such a good friend/classmate, but I know he is in a better place without any pain. I loved Te and I will never forget him.##imported-begin##Haylee Graham##imported-end##

“ Dearest Terry, I hold great love and admiration for you and your family. Te tried to always be strong for first his mother then Cree and through it all for you, his father, his hero. A couple of weeks ago I told him I would pray for him and Cree and you. He said in that slow lazy drawl, "Oh, Mrs. Cook don't pray for me, save your prayers for Cree and Dad." I told him I thought our GOD was willing and capable caring for the three of you. I have been so very blessed to have known not only, Te but also, Cree and Monna. They have touched my life in a very special way, just as you have. You are not only a hero in Te's eyes, but in mine.##imported-begin##JANET COOK##imported-end##

“ It was always a pleasure taking care of Te when he would come for a tune-up on 10West! We loved him dearly. Te and I had so many deep conversations regarding CF and how kids with CF were blessed with so much wisdom. I remember in June of 2010 we were talking and ge mentioned that Cree was his hero! He was so thankful for his family. It was such a great honor to get to care for Te. Thinking and praying for the friends and family.##imported-begin##Lori Scott##imported-end##
