“ Dear Fawn and Kristi:

I am so sorry to read about the loss of your Dad. Your Dad was the first person I met in PV when we moved to town.

Your Dad always liked me (really think he liked everyone) When he would talke with you, he would always placed you at a much higher level than what you thought of yourself. He could make you feel you could achieve anything.

I learned a lot from those conversation I had with your Dad over the three years I was at the school.

What a man your Dad was, he touch so many people like me. He may be gone from this earth but his presence lives on in many of us.

God bless each of you and may he confort you with the loss of your Dad.

“ Kristi and Family,

I am so sorry for your loss. My daddy passed away the same day yours did. My prayers are with you. Just remember the good times you had. We will always have our memories. They would want us to remember the good and happy times before they became ill. Lean on Jesus, and let Him be your strength and your peace. It is not easy, I know. I am praying for you all.
