“ I want to share a funny memory of Ty. When he and my daughter were teenagers they took off down to Willie Nelson Farm Aid Festivals. I still don't know who all went, but I was out of town and said they could use my car. However; I was under the assumption that they were only going to the Zoo Amphitheater in OKC. I got back and they arrived and sort of scattered. I seen Ashley and Ty and said, "OMG what has happened to you two?" They were both burnt to a crisp. I asked a lot of questions about their trip to OKC and they just stuck to that one story. Years, years later I was in Pauls Valley at the Libarary and seen Ty. We walked out together and he said, "I have always felt bad about racing your car and all of us piled up in it when we went to Farm Aid. Gosh, we got the worst sunburns ever." I laughed and told him so now the truth comes out. I knew they had done something, but never knew what it was. He said, "oh no you mean you really didn't know where we had gone?" When I got home I called my daughter and said well now I understand why you were so burnt up that one summer. Ty told me everything. She had a cow. I said I am not mad it was so long ago, but she had to call Ty and tell him. "I can't believe you told on us, once a secret you never tell." I had so much fun with them both giving them heck about waiting all those years and then me finding out anyways. We laughed a lot about it.
