

Walter L. Campbell

January 20, 1934 - February 24, 2016

Walter L. Campbell of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma was born to Paul Leonard and Velma Sarah (Roady) Campbell on January 20, 1934 in Tecumseh, Oklahoma and passed from this life on February 24, 2016 in Norman, Oklahoma at the age of 82 years.

Walter grew up and attended school in many towns. He graduated high school in Wynnewood, Oklahoma. On May 29, 1953, Walter married Betty Winters in Gainesville, Texas the same night they graduated high school. Together they made their home in California for five years before returning to Wynnewood. Walter worked as a studio projectionist in Van Nuys and the family owned theatre. He owned and operated W.A.'s Egg Farm, Wynnewood Flower Pot, and Savage Video. Walter also had a business of vintage aviation parts and surplus named "Renavair." He traveled to OshKosh, Wisconsin and Sun-n-Fun in Florida where he sold parts. Mr. Campbell ventured in many things. He enjoyed flying, buying and selling planes, and woodworking. The highlight of his life was his family. He will be remembered for his incredible sense of humor.

Mr. Campbell is survived by:
