WANDA MARIE CALDWELL

September 28, 1941- September 23, 2013

Wanda Marie Caldwell passed from this life Monday, September 23, 2013 surrounded by her loving family.

She was born in Red Oak, Oklahoma to William Polson and Bertie Opal Stark. She was the oldest of five children and grew up at Bull Hill. Wanda was no stranger to work and spent much of her youth working in the garden and helping take care of her siblings and extended family.

Wanda married Johnny Lynn Forbus on April 24, 1959. Their early marriage was spent in Oklahoma City and Waynoka before finally settling in Wynnewood where they bought their dream home east of Wynnewood. There they raised their three children, Paul, Dina, and Deborah.

Wanda and Johnny enjoyed 32 years together until his death in 1991. She then met and married Glen Caldwell, and has been happily married for the past 20 years.

Wanda held several jobs such as working in a carpet factory, and selling clothing at Mettrey's before going to work at the State Bank of Wynnewood, where she worked until her retirement.

Wanda loved to cook and was well known around town for her Million Dollar Fudge. She also had a green thumb and had beautiful flower gardens. Wanda was an accomplished quilt maker winning several ribbons at local fairs for the beautiful quilts she made. She also loved to embroidery tea towels and pillow cases, making sure that all new married couples got a set.

Wanda had a love of music from an early age. Most Sundays she could be seen sitting in the church choir. She was also a member of the Music Club and for years hosted the Christmas meeting which gave her the opportunity to show off her Christmas decorating skills.

Wanda was a member of the First Baptist Church of Wynnewood and found comfort from her church family during her sickness.

Wanda was a friend to many and loved by all.

Wanda is survived by her loving husband, Glen Caldwell of the home.
