

William "Bill" Francis Boudreau

August 4, 1942 - May 31, 2013

William "Bill" Francis Boudreau passed away peacefully at his residence in Paoli on Friday, May 31, 2013 after a courageous battle with cancer. Bill entered this life born to the late Homer and Hazel (Handley) Boudreau on August 04, 1942 in Lawton, Oklahoma. He was a teenaged hellion who loved to go cruising around Hollie's Drive-In, but he managed to graduate from Capitol Hill High School in Oklahoma City. After attending college for a period of time, Bill met and later married the love of his life, Joan "Joanie" Willeford. They were married on May 22, 1964 in the Elmore City United Methodist Church. Bill and Joanie remained faithful to their marriage covenant until they were parted by Joanie's death on December 17, 2001. They were such a fun loving couple, and humor was their antidote to any troubles life might present. Bill had a very long and successful career in sales using his salesmanship to sell many products, most recently working for Cartwright Enterprises in grocery vending. Whatever Bill did he did it well, including his favorite hobby, fishing. In addition to fishing, he enjoyed watching Nascar races and the military channel. Bill was also an avid reader. He was fiercely loyal to family and friends and taught his children to value loyalty and integrity. Bill was noble, honorable, outgoing, friendly, wise, supportive, direct and firm. He taught his children and grandchildren to always do the right thing. Bill took his family role as provider and leader very seriously. His children respected him and as they grew up and began making their own decisions they tried to exhibit behavior of which their parents would approve. Bill put others at ease with his sense of humor and his infectious laughter. He always saw his cup as half full rather than half empty. Bill was a member of the United Methodist Church of Paoli. The person Bill would most have liked to meet was his favorite actor Morgan Freeman.

Bill is survived by:

Son – Shawn “Sam” F. Boudreau and wife Shannon of Moore, Oklahoma

Daughters – Tawni McKeon and husband John of St. Louis, Missouri and

Peppi Lee Boudreau of Oklahoma City

5 Grandchildren – Caleb Hunter and Emma McKeon of St. Louis, Missouri;

Cadi Hunter of Tulsa, Oklahoma; Brennan Staat and Taylor Jackson of Moore, Oklahoma

Bill is preceded in death by his parents, Homer and Hazel Boudreau and his beautiful wife Joanie Boudreau.

“ I grieve today the loss of one of the best friends I ever had in my whole life, yet at the same time, I rejoice because I know he is in Heaven and standing before The Lord a healed man. Sometimes the pain is so great, words cannot touch it. Bill was one of a kind and you always knew you could count on his honesty and loyalty. I have known Bill for 27 years and the last time I talked with him a couple weeks ago, he told me in his most serious tone, Lyn I love you. I said well Bill, I love you too. He said, NO Lyn, I mean it. I love you. How did I know that would be the LAST time I heard his voice and had one of those wonderful, funny conversations which always included some type of sage advice about life. Bill, I will miss you all the rest of my life and look forward to the day I see you in Heaven and we can pick up where we left off. God bless you, God bless your family and all those who are hurting now.

“ BB was the funniest guy that I have ever known. Bill always viewed life from the humorous side and if you look up the word "jocular" , that defines him. He loved his friends and wasn't afraid to say so. Bill called me on Christmas Eve several years ago just to tell me how much he cared. Another time he called me on my cell phone when I was driving cross country just to say he cares. I will miss him.

“ i can't even begin to tell all of my favorite "Boudreau" memories. Bill had a LOT of friends because he truly knew how to be a friend. I will treasure that special friendship until i see him again (and I will see him again). We shared many laughs about our kids, fishing, basketball,etc. I already miss seeing his name pop up on my caller ID - it was truly a highlight in my day to talk to my bud. Not all men are "man enough" to tell their good friends that they love you - Bill was man enough. I love you my brother and I will see you again.
