“ My heart it broken into pieces because of the loss of my sweet and loving Aunt Willie Nell. My life will never be the same without her. She was my second Mom and we loved each other so much. We had such good times together. My heart goes out to you, Tem and Penny and the rest of the family. I know you hearts are so broken with this loss. She loved you all so much and was so proud of each one of you.

I am so sorry that I am stuck way out here in North Carolina and can not be the with you for the service. I would love to be there to hold and love each of you and try to help comfort you in some way I love you all so much

I'm so glad we got to be with her at Christmas. It meant so much to us.

Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you now and that Aunt Willie Nell is in the arms of the Lord and she and Uncle Troy are so happy to be together again as they always were here in this life.

Love you. Carla

“ I didn't know Granda Nell very well when I started staying with her and taking care of her. But she won my heart over very quickly and would get on to me when I called her Willie Nell she would say I'm grandma Nell not Willie Nell all my children call me Grandma Nell! I lived her for 2 months in 2017 and enjoyed getting to spoil her. I Loved the conversation we would have together she always had something to say to brighten my days even on some of my worst day. She would always ask me why I didn't go to church when she knew it was Sunday and on them days I would make it a point to read to her my daily Quest book a daily reader with quotes from the Bible she just loved the Bible quotes so much and she would brighten up when I would read to her rather she could hear me or not she would at least express her enjoyment of me reading. And Her singing I will always remember her singing and her concern for everyone she loved and cared about. I hate that I won't be able to make it Thursday. I love you Grandam Nell and know that you are in a better place and in no pain laying in a bed anymore and you are singing with Troy and the Angels. May you Rest In Peace.
