“ My first memory of my Aunt WilmaLee was after our parents separated and our momma, Barbara Lou, took us all to stay at our ma-ma's house where WilmaLee lived. She was so good to us and made our lives as comfortable as possible with so many of us added to our cousins who already lived there. I remember her biscuits for breakfast and helping her with laundry in the wringer washer on the back porch. Her smile and kindness were a bright spot in my life. I'm sure that my momma is welcoming her and celebrating their birthdays together at last. My sister, Laura, and I got to visit with her 3 weeks ago. She was so happy to see photos we brought for her. Photos of herself and her family. She will be missed. ❤️
